

Publishing Notes

1.a) Guidelines

- Our posts may consist of research, reviews, articles or papers.
- Submissions are only accepted in English, Spanish, Portuguese, Japanese or Russian.
- Any material submitted to us, should be compiled in the following order: title; introduction; keywords; main text; conclusions; acknowledgments; references and/or biographical notes (if any).
- Provide the date when the material was written.
- Provide the full name and contact details of the author.
- The material should consist of relevant, interesting and original work.

Send the article to: publish@econeers.com

Stating if it is your original work, attaching to the email a single file in MS word (.doc extension) and a table with your contact details.

Note: All submissions must be your original work, any posts found to be copies from somewhere else will be deleted without notice. So please only submit your own original material.

1.b) Important Reminder

Our main focus is on confronting challenging problems, through ingenious and original frameworks to propose plausible solutions. Please, only send us material that attempts to work towards solutions, avoid sending any conceited, spurious or sophist arguments that would contribute little to the exchange of ideas between peers.
